"ON MY OWN"

Every girl plays teacher, teacher, but I think I took this game a little more seriously. I have worked as a teacher with schools like Hasanat High School, Jamnabai Narsee, Arya Vidya Mandir, etc Post that I started my own consultancy firm-T.A.S.H.A-Teacher and Student Help Activities. I was the founding consultant for many pre-school brands one of them was Euro Kids. I worked on many educational projects for young children like Tatasky, Active Whiz kids and many more.

With the blessing of Mr. Ganesh Podar & Dr. Pavan Podar I set up Podar Jumbo Kids - the preschool with a difference. It became a milestone in the field of preschool education.

It also included teacher training college, children's clubs, and published books for teachers and children. Which took shape of Podar Education Network. Today the Podar JumboKids chain is 490 preschools strong with over 45,000 children pan India. I am also the Director of its UAE chain - Joy of Learning.

Today, I am the President of Early Childhood Education and Association for Primary Education and Research which has a membership base of over 40,000 members and its goal is to enhance the quality of early childhood care and education in this country. I have written over 25 books for parents, teachers, and children and am proud of my book on Gijubhai Badeka - Once upon a Story, that I have co-authored with Vinitha and my two other books on-screen less coding for children- Yash and Yashika learn about coding and Cod and Codie love coding published by Scholastic.

With 34 years in education, I think my journey has just begun, and there are miles to achieve in the quality of the pre-school education.

Can we change the title homemaker or housewife to Home CEO?

Woman - is the most beautiful creation of GOD. To be born, with a female body doesn't make her a woman. For that, she has to go through different phases of life.

A women's journey starts from being a girl, a daughter and a sister who brings happiness in the family, and then her life opens a new chapter for her - Marriage. Where the entire family is reliant on her for their daily activities. She plays the role of a homemaker, wife, mother, cook, teacher, and friend all at the same time and caters to everyone's needs. Even before the birth of a child, a mother is born. By giving up on her dreams, a mother fulfills the dreams of her family.

Housewife or Home CEO, I don't believe in giving names or designation given to women. The work that a woman does is far beyond that. Her love and dedication to all her work can be measured by her name only. Call her by her name in a loving way, and everything is taken care of.

By
Bobby Karnani
Founder VNWC & Vastrum

Women, aren't they unique and wonderful beings created by God?

I have seen no woman who isn't unique in her own way. In spite of the uniqueness, women have certain special traits that make them the person they are. Just like a CEO of an organization, they plan, organize, direct, control, and manage each and everything for each and everyone as a default setting. Salute to their patience, resilience, and strength!!

By

Prof Kavleen Makar Bhasin

Educator, EQ coach, philanthropist

Yes, I totally agree that the term Housewife must be changed to Home CEO because “A Strong woman accepts both compliments and criticism graciously, knowing that it takes both Sun & Rain for a flower to grow.”

A woman has always been good at multitasking and she plays several roles with ease. Whether it's being a daughter, sister, mother, leader, employee and a wife... to be more precise it's a HOUSEWIFE. Out of all these roles, the role of a housewife is the most challenging. Whether she is working or not she has to play the role of a HOUSEWIFE best, as she has to balance everything wholeheartedly without a single day off. To acknowledge the efforts of a housewife, in this modern age she must be called a Home CEO.

The modern housewife is multitasking and hence they can certainly be addressed as the Home CEO. It is a crucial affirmation that the power of women at home is successful because they are independent, have a clear vision, are able to inspire and motivate others, are honest, ethical and care for their family. My friends do not underestimate the power of a housemaker, in fact they acknowledge it and appreciate Home CEOs as women work selflessly without expecting anything in return. They only need you to appreciate their gestures of love.

The Floor arts of India

- Himadri Pachori

A home is never complete without a woman. Her touch, attention, love, and warmth make a house a home. Women from all spheres of life enjoy decorating their houses and, in our country, there is never a shortage of inspiration. We can find special ritual decorations that are done to welcome the new season, to add colors to a festival, to pay gratitude before harvest or for a household ceremony or for a puja. One such ritual that women from different parts of the country do is making Rangolis (floor art).

Women all over the country have been decorating floors of their homes with traditional folk paintings and patterns since ages and there are so many to choose from.

Here are some of them:

Aipan

Aipan is practiced in Uttarakhand.

Alpana

Alpana is a Bengali Art.

Kolam

Kolam is a form of Rangoli from the state of Tamil Nadu.

Mandana

Mandana is a folk art of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh.

Aripan

Aripan originated in Bihar and its roots go back to the times of Ramayan.

Jhoti Chita

Jhoti Chita is a traditional Rangoli from Odisha.

SABBATICAL

SABBATICAL

Rest ; Refresh; Refocus

Urvashi Pachori

What is the first thing that comes to your mind when you think of Sabbatical taken by women for childbirth?

Sleepless nights, a frail body, a crying baby, sense of helplessness and high strung emotions. These are few memories of my Sabbatical, which I had taken eight years back when my daughter was born. I was hoping to get back to my life and office routine straight away in three months. Not knowing that it's not that easy and simple. Now when I think of it, it feels like a different era to me. I was totally lost, swept with different emotions, filled with fear and was cut off from rest of the world. I made a lot of mistakes and took a long time to get back on track, but am proud of where I am standing today.

My professional journey was very enriching and satisfying, but somewhere in my heart I always dreamt of working independently and not going back to the typical 9 to 5 office job. I can proudly say my sabbatical, was the turning point of my career.

Motherhood is a beautiful journey But it comes with a lot of responsibilities and loads of changes. And if we are not fully prepared for it ,we will be left lost and helpless. A new mother experiences so many emotions along with low self-confidence, loss of financial independence, and the need to quickly get back to her normal routine.

There are so many challenges which women face during their sabbatical and after it. But, if we have an open mind, plan it well and take this as a Wonderful opportunity to Rest; Refresh; Refocus it will definitely change our outlook.

Few important points which will help you to get back into the saddle with confidence:

Embrace the change- Motherhood is a beautiful journey, enjoy each and every moment of it. Make the best of this time to create lifelong memories and a beautiful bond with your newborn baby.

Evaluate your situation- It is important that you assess your situation open-mindedly and honestly. After you have settled in your new role as a mother, ask yourself these questions :

- How soon can I get back to work?
- Am I physically and mentally ready to join back?
- Can I spend these many months with my child and enjoy motherhood?
- Do I have a lot of financial responsibilities?
- Do I want to continue with the same job or a shift in career can be a possibility?
- Do I want to take up a full-time job or a flexible working job can be worked out?

Do your SWOT- this helps to assess where do you stand right now, and what are your challenges like dip in self-confidence, outdated skills etc. It helps you to come up with an action plan and start working on it .

Plan ahead- after you evaluate your situation, you will get a clear idea about the options you are keen to take up and explore. Then start with your research and planning. In my case, I realised that I wanted to work independently with flexible working hours doing what I was passionate about.

Have the right attitude/ mindset- A break in job does not mean a decline or redundancy in your skills. If you cannot start immediately, start working on your skill set or a course which will later help you to be there .

Have a Support system- Do not hesitate to ask for help from friends and family. They can be of great help when you start working again.

Networking- keep in touch with your friends and ex-colleagues, share your plans and goals with them. You will be surprised to see the suggestions, help and support that comes up. If you don't ask for it, you will never get it.

Stay connected- be updated with the latest development and trends in your respective field to have an edge over others, when you start working again.

Stay positive and focussed though out.

Be Motivated and get back with a bang, energized, refreshed and refocussed.

HAPPY PARENTS & HAPPY KIDS!!

-Shaileja Laddha

We all are stressed out in our lives, and eventually we tend to get angry, irritated, gloomy, and cannot concentrate. Hence lash out on kids, friends, and family members. What we tend to miss is the happiness in small things that we are blessed with.

- Be kind to everyone possible in your family & house helpers.
- Have more fun with your family & children
- Make time to do things for yourself only.
- Exercise, meditate for tougher/ better mental, physical & emotional health.
- Don't overdo imposing your beliefs every time.

- Sometimes let go of things that are not the way you want them to be.
- Have set rules in the house. children should have structured rules for better growth since the formative years.
- Spend quality time with your children & family members. "Har Ek friend zaruri hota hai", so don't forget the friends.
- Don't compare your children with others. Competition should be with the child's previous achievements.

Two Digits Number Tables

Let's take a number
 $54 \times 6$ ...

Steps to Find 54
times 6 :-

STEP 1

Distribute 54
in such a form that one of the number has 0 (zero) at it's units place.

STEP 2

i.e  $54 = 50 + 4$  so  $54 \times 6$
will be written
as  $(50 + 4) \times 6$
Now this becomes easy

STEP 3

$50 \times 6 = 300$  &  $4 \times 6 = 24$
Now add both 300 & 24 our final
answer is 324.

EXAMPLE-2

$48 \times 9$

Now we know  $48 = 50 - 2$ ,
So,  $(50 - 2) \times 9 = 450 - 18 = 432$ .

Spies in Disguise

This movie is right on top of my best spy movie list. Strictly professional spy agent, Lance Sterling, meets newbie tech inventor Walter. Determined to impress Lance with his skills, Walter turns him into a blue birdie! Throughout this movie, Lance is trying to defeat villains with his feathered wings which is amusing. Spies in Disguise is the most entertaining film in recent times.

The White Tiger

By Aravind Adiga

This book now turned into a motion picture on Netflix, brings to light a different take on the village life of our country. It makes us see poverty from a whole different perspective. The author dubs it the "darkness" as most of the people living in the rural areas of India or people who come from the rural area have very little information of the issues that trouble the world on a daily basis. It brings forth some very interesting opinions, i highly recommend this book.

This book bring forth several refreshing ideas and some rather poignant stories which aim to make us think about our prejudices and the way we act because of them. The provided information is helpful and makes us understand and learn more about people that are among us everywhere but we consider myths. Everything that we think is "weird" is because of society and normalizing people who don't fit in the societal definition of normal is what this book is all about.

My Experience

I am at my grandparent's place in Amravati. We have a big terrace. My grandparents really love gardening. We decided to develop our organic kitchen garden. But how to start. So we read a book called, "Urban Farming". This book had all steps required to start and maintain the kitchen garden.

So the first step we measured the area of our terrace. After finalizing the area, we purchased soil and seeds of vegetables we need to grow. Before planting the seeds, we need to prepare the soil for few days. We need to add cow dung, manure, and other things. I took the charge of it.

After 4 days of hard work, finally, the soil was ready.

Now we need to prepare the seeds too. We soaked the seeds in fermented jaggery water for 2 days. Meanwhile, we filled the pots with soil. Then we planted the seeds in each pot. Do you know the whole process took 37 days from seed to small sampling?

We need to water them regularly. Take care of their growth. I realized I am just working in a small area for few pots, how it would be for our farmers who work all days on the farm growing foodgrains and vegetables. They work for months together to produce results. We don't think before wasting food. I understood we should never waste the food, do you?

Tarot message for Gemini women

Use your brilliant imagination! Dream up the possibilities! Then, take those dreams and put action behind them.

Let's meet all
some awesome
kids of TZP

TZP Shining Star Awards

Sejal Ray

Taare Zameen Par is a Facebook group of 9500+ members. TZP strongly believes each child is unique. It is important to recognize different talents and skills in children. Children who pursue their passion are happier and have a great mental health.

With this belief, for the 1st time ever, we are coming up with a program to recognise the best talents namely TZP Shining Star Awards where we are felicitating 51 children from across Maharashtra
